MISSOULA--

The first "Cow Pie Chip Flip" contest for University of Montana deans will be at the School of Forestry at noon Wednesday, Jan. 11, near the forestry school building.

Acting forestry school dean Arnold Bolle has invited the other 10 UM deans and President Richard C. Bowers to compete for the "Forestry Dean's Invitational Challenge Cup" to be awarded to the chip flip contest winner.

The contest was established to draw attention to the 61st annual Forester's Ball, which will be from 8 p.m. to 1 a.m. Jan. 13 and 14 in the UM Men's Gym. Bolle said the contest is appropriate to the Forester's Ball theme, "Pride of the Prairie."

Proceeds from the Forester's Ball go towards scholarships and interest-free loans to qualified UM forestry students.

Tickets for the ball are $7.50 per couple each night and are on sale in the University Center Mall through Jan. 14.
